DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments, see pages 4 and 5, in combination with the amendment to the claims filed 5/29/2007, with respect to the rejection of claims 1, 7, 8, and 10 under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Allan et al have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1, 7, 8, and 10 has been withdrawn.
2. Applicant has amended claims 1 and 10 to include the limitation of the external force application means being adapted to apply mechanical force to the photonic crystal in a direction parallel to the direction of axes of the through holes forming the cyclic structure of the photonic crystal. Allan et al teach a force being exerted on the crystal that is perpendicular to the direction of the axes as shown by the arrows in figure 23. Allan et al do not disclose nor render obvious a force directed parallel to the direction of the axes of the holes forming the cyclic structure in combination with the rest of the claimed limitations.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 1, 7, 8, and 10 are allowed.
4. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
5. Claims 1 and 10 are allowable over the prior art of record because the latter, either alone or in combination, does not disclose nor render obvious an optical deflector comprising an external force application means for deforming a photonic crystal section by way of mechanical external force wherein the external force application means is adapted to apply mechanical external force to the photonic crystal in a direction parallel to the direction of axes of through holes forming a cyclic structure of the photonic crystal section in combination with the rest of the claimed limitations.

6. Claims 7 and 8 depend upon claim 1 are allowable for at least the same reasons.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
